Spotlight on

2016 Charlotte Legal Diversity Clerk: Rosemarie Aleman

Rosemarie (Rosy) Aleman is from Miami, FL. She got her Bachelor's degree from the University of Miami and is currently attending the University of North Carolina School of Law. While in law School, her activities include Hispanic/Latino(a) Law Student Association (1L Class Coordinator); Women in Law (1L Class Coordinator); Pro Bono Projects (37 hours): The Cancer Project, The Veterans Child Support Modification Project, The Immigration Clinic Project, and Winter Break Pro Bono Volunteer at the Intellectual Property Department at Smith, Anderson, Blount, Dorsett, Mitchell & Jernigan, L.L.P.

Rosy will be spending her summer at McGuireWoods and Bank of America.

Rosy chose to spend her first year summer in Charlotte because Charlotte is where she would like to establish her practice after law school. As a Business Law major in undergrad, she always knew she wanted to work somehow within the financial services industry. She believes the experiences that she will gain in both a law firm and in-house this summer would provide her with the skills necessary to thrive in her future career goals.

In her second year of law school, she is looking forward to being able to take a few classes that align more with her interests, such as Business Associations and Trademarks. She is also looking forward to writing for a journal.

Three fun facts about Rosy:

1. Her favorite Supreme Court Justice is Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg.
2. She has an identical twin (Roxy) that is in medical school.
3. She never misses the show Scandal.

Three items on her bucket list are:

1. To take a road trip across the U.S.
2. To go skydiving
3. To complete a 5K Race
