

Millard M. McCluney

The Realty Corner

Millard M. McCluney is the founder and Broker-in-Charge of The Realty Corner, a real estate agency attuned to customer needs.

Mr. McCluney's vision for a customer-centered Realty agency in Charlotte began at the Uptown Men's Shelter. Part-time volunteer work in the Shelter's Transitional Housing Program became a full-time career. His subsequent time with the Charlotte Housing Authority fueled his dream for helping people lead wealthy rewarding lives with homeownership. He then created The Realty Corner, designed to help everyone with realty services.

Mr. McCluney volunteers in many community efforts which focus on the needs of others. He works with the Older Adult Wellness Counsel of the United Way, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Council on Aging, the Metrolina Aids Project, and Habitat for Humanity.

Millard M. McCluney combines experience in real estate and community volunteerism for the best in customer care. He's on your side and in your corner! See ad page 170.

Millard M. McCluney is the founder and Broker-in-Charge of The Realty Corner, a real estate agency attuned to customer needs.

Mr. McCluney's vision for a customer-centered Realty agency in Charlotte began at the Uptown Men's Shelter. Part-time volunteer work in the Shelter's Transitional Housing Program became a full-time career. His subsequent time with the Charlotte Housing Authority fueled his dream for helping people lead wealthy rewarding lives with homeownership. He then created The Realty Corner, designed to help everyone with realty services.

Mr. McCluney volunteers in many community efforts which focus on the needs of others. He works with the Older Adult Wellness Counsel of the United Way, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Council on Aging, the Metrolina Aids Project, and Habitat for Humanity.

Millard M. McCluney combines experience in real estate and community volunteerism for the best in customer care. He's on your side and in your corner! See ad page 777.